Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy

Modern slavery Act 2015

Harper Plant Ltd has a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and is committed to acting ethically and with integrity and transparency in all of its business dealings consistent with its obligations under the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

We are Machinery Dealers providing sales service and parts supply.

Our supply chains include but are not limited to:

Kubota, Thwaites, CP, Digga, Ifor Williams and Husqvarna equipment.

We are committed to ensuring there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any parts of our business and we expect the same high standards from all our suppliers and business partners.

Details of our supplier chain policies are available from their own websites:

The Director has overall responsibility for ensuring that is policy complies with the Companies legal and ethical obligations and for investigating allegations of modern slavery.

We encourage openness and will support anyone who raises concerns.

The company will not work with any organisations knowingly involved with human trafficking or slavery and does not engage with countries identified as "high risk."

Training regarding the risk the business faces from modern slavery and the knowledge on how to identify exploitation will be provided to staff as necessary.
